Research Tasks and Wider Reading:

As optional extra areas of study (each of the below correlates to the main task with the same number), you might like to:

1. Use the website https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/blogs/the\_papers to look at other newspaper covers and headlines. You may wish to choose other publications to explore the similarities and differences.
2. Look at the BBC Bitesize website: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/guides/zw8xfrd/revision/1>. Read up about the design and changes in the music industry across the years.
3. Look at the following websites to read more about how magazine's are adjusting and adapting to the digital age and the effect this has on their sales, brand, audience/readership and design
  - a. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/entertainment-arts-40897967>
  - b. <https://www.paperlit.com/blog/advantages-of-digital-magazines-vs-printed-magazines/>
  - c. <https://natwestbusinesshub.com/articles/magazines-turning-the-page-in-the-age-of-digital>
4. Explore the concept of hegemony further through the following media:
  - a. Read this profile of Donald Glover (Childish Gambino) and consider how he feels his 'blackness' is treated by the hegemony
  - b. Watch episodes of Glover's TV series Atlanta (created by black people for a black audience) and consider the representations of black and white people in this program.
5. Look at the following websites to read/watch more about gender performativity
  - a. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=stFSvVYJ\_tk
  - b. <http://www.openculture.com/2018/02/judith-butler-on-gender-performativity.html>
