

Becky Barton

Vice-chair, Quality of Education Committee

Becky comes from a background in Youth Work. With a degree in Community and Youth Studies, she has over 15 years' experience in the field. Becky's skills include mentoring and counselling young people, training and managing staff, working with parents and the wider community, event planning and management, policy writing, and risk assessment. She has previously worked as an exam invigilator at Stratford Upon Avon School, where she is also now a parent.

Although not currently employed due to health reasons, Becky is still very active in the community. In 2018, Becky started a local support group for people with Fibromyalgia, which now has over 100 members and receives regular referrals from the NHS. She is also part of the Stratford Town Centre Chaplaincy team, providing spiritual support to local businesses and education establishments. In her spare time, Becky enjoys computer aided graphic design and has produced and maintained a website for a charity in Africa.

Becky is vice-chair of the Quality of Education Committee, and link governor for Pupil Premium and Exams. Becky is committed to improving the mental and emotional well-being of students, and their experience of life in general.
