

Subject	History (part of the Humanities curriculum)
	Interpretation of National Curriculum into Year group Endpoints
Year	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3
7	This term, in Humanities, students will learn about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An introduction to aspects of Humanities, including locational geography and an understanding of time periods. • Elements of good citizenship including an understanding of Christianity in the UK, social media, puberty, rights and responsibilities, money management. • A study of geography in the UK which includes lessons on the weather, erosional processes, settlement location and map skills. • A depth study of Medieval England which explores the extent to which England changed, including the development of kingship, the feudal system, the Battle of Hastings, the Black Death and the Peasant's Revolt. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ This topic includes the West African Mali Empire of Mansa Musa. 	This term, in Humanities, students will learn about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A study of Early Modern Britain, including the Reformation, the Spanish Armada and the Civil War - causes, course and consequences, witch-hunting and the Enlightenment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ This topic includes the West African kingdoms of Benin and Songhai. • A geographical depth study on Africa to include its major physical features and the impacts of geography on its historical and current development. 	This term, in Humanities, students will learn about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Industrial Britain (c. 1750 - 1900), including the Industrial Revolution, the Atlantic slave trade, and the growth of the British Empire and its impacts on India. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ This topic includes a study of Stratford upon Avon during the Industrial Revolution. • Current environmental and geographical issues across the globe; their causes, consequences and attempts to moderate their impact. This will include climate change and the challenges of population and demographic change. • The different systems of government and political ideologies in use throughout the world. • The development, over time, of Britain's current political set-up and about our 'fundamental British values'.