

Subject	History
	Interpretation of National Curriculum into Year group Endpoints
Year	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3
9	Students will learn about the changing nature of crime, policing and punishment in Medieval and Early Modern Britain. The skills focus will be on 4-mark similarity and difference questions and 12-mark causation questions	Students will learn about the changing nature of crime, policing and punishment in Industrial and modern Britain. The skills focus will be on 16-mark 'how far do you agree' questions.	Starting the American West 1835-1895 Using a thematic model. Looking at westward migration. The skills focus will be on writing Historically to explain the consequences, chronology and importance of key events.