

KS5 Year 12 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Autumn Term 2022-23

The first year of the course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit two mock exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Autumn Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions What is a business? What is HR management? What is marketing?	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered. Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week. Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The role of the entrepreneur• Economic sectors• Recruitment and selection• Motivational theory and leadership• The 4Ps• Market research
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.

KS5 Year 12 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Spring Term 2022-23

The first year of the course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit two mock exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Spring Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions How do businesses use finance? What is investment appraisal? How is ratio analysis used by businesses? What are the types of production used? What methods of stock control exist? Why is quality important for businesses?	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered. Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week. Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sources of finance• APP, Pay back period, Net present value• Budgets and how to use them• Performance and liquidity ratios• Economies and diseconomies of scale• LIFO, FIFO, stock charts• QC, QA, TQM, bench marking
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.

KS5 Year 12 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Summer Term 2022-23

The first year of the course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit two exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Summer Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions What external influences are there to affect businesses? Why set business objectives and strategy?	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supply & demand• Market regulation and dominance• STEEPLE• Stakeholders and who they are and their impact• The relationship between risk and reward• Financial and non-financial measures		Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week.
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures		Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.			