

KS5 Year 13 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Autumn Term 2022-23

The second year of the course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit three exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Autumn Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions What is HR management? How do businesses use marketing? How can production be improved in businesses? Working with finance in business?	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered. Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Causes of change• Contingency planning and crisis management• Types of communication• HRM objectives• Accounting conventions• Explaining consumer behaviour		Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.

KS5 Year 13 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Spring Term 2022-23

The second year of the Business course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit three exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Spring Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions How external influences affect businesses? How businesses make decisions	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered. Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week. Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered <ul style="list-style-type: none">• International trade• The EU• Following legislation• The franchise model• Forecasting• Critical Path Analysis• Decision trees• Using financial and non-financial measures
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.

KS5 Year 13 - Business Studies Curriculum Map Summer Term 2022 - 23

The second year of the Business course will look at the main areas of study which are managing change, HR management, marketing, production, External influences and business decision-making and strategy. Students will sit three exams in the summer to be assessed on the theory learnt.

Learning Unit: Summer Term	Assessment Deadlines	Homework Areas	Extended Learning opportunity
Key questions The key questions will revolve around everything that has been done on this 2 year course	Assessments will be completed during the term.	Homework will be set based on the topics being covered.	Extended Learning will be included with each homework task.
Content covered The content will cover everything studied over the two years of the course		Students should get one piece of written/research homework each week.
Literacy and Numeracy Business terminology related to each topic Basic numeracy for calculating percentages/figures		Homework may consist of reading up on the latest business developments taking place.
What parents can do to help your child? Parents can help their child by making sure that they read a quality newspaper each week to see what is happening in the economy and business environment.
Additional resources http://www.s-cool.co.uk/a-level/business-studies ; Website: Business studies online; Bized; OCR Business for A Level text book; Essential Maths skills for AS/A-Level Business
Who to contact if you have any query about the subject In the first instance we would encourage you to get in touch with the subject teacher – the student planner may be one way of communicating. You may also wish to contact the Curriculum Leader for the subject which is Mr Qureshi who will also be able to help you.			