

Subject	English
	Interpretation of National Curriculum into Year group Endpoints
Year	Term 1		Term 2		Term 3
13 Lit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Students will focus on their Non-Examined Assessment during this half-term. They will: ensure that they have a detailed plan in place; complete a first draft of this essay; receive feedback on their first draft and will produce their final essay. •Students will read Pat Barker's novel 'Regeneration' in its entirety and will analyse her use of language, structure and form •Students will read Rudyard Kipling's play 'My Boy Jack' in its entirety and will analyse his use of language, structure and form •Students will study a selection of World War One Poetry taken from The Penguin Book of First World War Poetry. •Students will need to develop their contextual understanding of World War One and writing trends and patterns that occurred during this time period. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Students will focus on their Non-Examined Assessment during this half-term. They will: ensure that they have a detailed plan in place; complete a first draft of this essay; receive feedback on their first draft and will produce their final essay. •Students will read Pat Barker's novel 'Regeneration' in its entirety and will analyse her use of language, structure and form •Students will read Rudyard Kipling's play 'My Boy Jack' in its entirety and will analyse his use of language, structure and form •Students will study a selection of World War One Poetry taken from The Penguin Book of First World War Poetry. •Students will need to develop their contextual understanding of World War One and writing trends and patterns that occurred during this time period. 	All Course content covered Component 1 Section A and B: Revision of previously studied topics. Exam skills preparation	All Course content covered Component 1 Section A and B: Revision of previously studied topics. Exam skills preparation		